

July 23, 2020

Dear Nolan Creek School Families,

As we know, information and guidance changes quickly in this time of coronavirus. Bell County issued a health order today that prevents us from having on-campus instruction until after September 7, 2020. A copy of the health order can be found here.

As communicated yesterday, we already made the decision to offer only virtual instruction from August 19 – September 8. This is still our plan. Our plan also included the option for students to come to campus to participate in virtual instruction. We are no longer able to offer this on-campus option due to the county health order.

In addition, there are several recommendations under the health order that are different than our 2020-21 School Start Plan shared yesterday including student temperature checks upon arrival to campus and face coverings for ALL students and staff. Campus and district staff will be discussing these recommendations next week and will communicate any changes to our school start plan next Wednesday.

Until then, stay safe, and take care!

Sincerely,
